PROPHECY: Nana Akufo-Addo Is The Next President of Ghana come 2013

It would be recalled that on Friday 29th October, 2010 there was a prophecy that was published in the Daily searchlight Newspaper, with the Front page caption "The Campaign for Konadu is On as Prophet Jumps In and Says... NO KONADU NO NDC!"

The above publication came after an earlier one on Wednesday 14th July, 2010 Captioned "NDC WILL LOSE ELECTION 2012!-PROPHET, which was followed by another the following week captioned "WHY NDC WILL LOSE ELECTION 2012-PROPHET-SEGBENE, in which Segbene Xenodzi had Narrated a vision of a Shinning Falling Star (the galactic Star of Ghana driven by Mills-Mahama Government then) and this was used in composing a music for Nana Konadu Agyeman Rawlings Last Year before the Sunyani Congress.

However, in all these publications, Segbene Xenodzi, Servant of Yahweh, narrated visions he had received and cautioned the Leadership of the National Democratic Congress, but all his efforts proved futile as they (government) paid only a deaf ear to the message of Yahweh to their own detriment.

Segbene, the servant of God had earlier walked barefooted for five (5) months from 1st of August, 2008 to 3rd of January, 2009, a prophetic assignment for then 2008 Presidential candidate of the National Democratic Congress, John Evans Atta Mills and then presidential candidate Barack Obama of the Democrat Party in the United States of America, to both win their elections and prevent the Assassination of Barack Obama as well as civil war in Ghana. Mills was thankful in his reply to Segbene on the 16th of October, 2008 but never mind Yahwehs instructions after he had won the elections leading to his untimely death.

According to Segbene, even though Yahweh gave both two terms each, that of Late President Mills-Mahama administration was curtailed to only one term.

The God Segbene Serves, Yahweh, the supreme God of Ancient warned that when then President Mills does not undertake a last directive, he will lose the throne and will no longer be the president of Ghana. This Deadline date was May, 2011. When Segbene received this information in his dream, he quickly rushed to the Castle to tell then President Mills about the directive but his appointment was never granted and the dead line passed.

Yahweh then gave three options to the then leader of the National Democratic Congress, Late John Evans Fiifi Atta Mills, the FIRST was for him to lose the NDC Sunyani Congress to rest and live a little longer for Nana Konadu to win the 2012 elections for the NDC, the SECOND was for him to resign also to save himself and if the two options fail then his demise was inevitable unless resurrection.

Initially, Segbene upon receiving the vision took the first option of Mills losing the throne by losing the 2011 National Democratic Congress Sunyani congress, hence his surety and infamous proclamation of “I WILL KILL MYSELF IF KONADU LOSES”.

However, just after the congress when it was announced that Late President Mills had won, Segbene knew there was trouble ahead, since he received another vision in which Late President Mills' Picture was not on the 2012 presidential Ballot paper.

However, since it was left with only two other options thus Mills' resignation or Death, Segbene waited to see which one would manifest but prayed for the former. It will be recalled that some people in government resisted Late President Mills' attempt to resign leading him with no choice than the last option which finally manifested and he died on Tuesday, 24th of July, 2012.

If you recall, on the 11th of July, 2011, Peace FM's radio Host Kwame Sefa Kayi, had a live interview with Segbene Xenodzi on Peace Fm's Kokrokoo programme. In that interview, Segbene insisted that it was Nana Konadu Agyeman Rawlings who had won the 2011 Sunyani Congress and those events ahead will unveil a mystery to Ghana and the entire world. Infact, He was misunderstood.

Many labeled him a Lunatic but he still proclaimed the mystic revelation knowing that Mills will not partake in the 2012 election. Was it a mystic Judgment on the 2011 Sunyani Congress?

Moreover, his dream about Late President Mills' absence on the 2012 ballot Paper repeated early January, 2012 and this was a confirmation to Segbene but he was in a dilemma as to whether Mills will be resigning or something tragic was going to happen.

Finally, just before Mills died, Segbene had a vision about his death which was revealed in mystic numeric symbols but when he spoke about it some people said he was the one who will die and never the President.

They still never still understood him. Segbene was later called by his uncle to listen to Adom Fm and told him that the dream he had narrated about the President's death to him had manifested. It was a pity.

Segbene prayed for his God, Yahweh to prove himself to the world by bringing back the life of the late President. On the fourth day after his death, 28th of July, 2012, Segbene received a directive to resurrect the President before the sun goes down, but all his efforts proved futile and the directive was never executed until Late President Mills was judged and his remains buried at the Castle Drive, Osu, Accra now called Asomdwe Park.

Now who spoke the truth? Man or Segbene's God, Yahweh?

On the 4th of September, 2012, Segbene had a vision in which Yahweh finally told him that the winner of the 2012 Presidential election will be the candidate in the THIRD POSITION on the 2012 Presidential ballot paper. Segbene did not keep this vision to himself as always, he told many and in an interview with the Editor of The Citizen newspaper, Segbene told him the vision so he could publish it, but the editor prevailed upon him that he would not publish it since he fears the ruling government may manage their way to take the third position to occupy the vision. He advised that we wait and see which of the candidates will take the THIRD POSITION.

Finally, on faithful day 19th october, 2012, a month after the vision of Yahweh, the Electoral Commission balloted for positions on the ballot and lo and behold Nana Akuffo Addo miraculously picked the THIRD POSITION which Yahweh had revealed earlier contains the winner of the 2012 Presidential Polls. Hallelujah.

This means Nana Akufo Addo will win the 2012 Presidential elections and become Ghana's new President in the year 2013 in his 69th age. Even as it is written and confirmed from the throne of Yahweh, let it be done. Fear Yahweh and give him glory.
